

Athletics Manitoba
President's Report - January 2020

This last 2 months has gone very quickly. Happy New Year and welcome to a new decade!

The indoor athletics season is in full force. The Bison Classic is January 31 and February 1, 2020 and the Boeing Indoor Classic is February 28 and 29, 2020. It is always good to see board members at the meets. If I don't see you, please come and say hi. I am not at all the meets but most. The Athletics Calendar is at Athletics Manitoba launched a new format to the website. More has been added to the website since the launch.

Alanna, myself and Grant Mitchell attended the Athletics Canada Semi-Annual General Meeting AGM November 21, 22 and 23. The strategic planning session was led by a professional facilitator who led us through several exercises over 2 days. Having been through many sessions like this, I thought it was one of the best ones I had ever attended. The material generated from the Strategic Planning Session will be submitted to the Athletics Canada Board for review and approval.

On November 28, 2020, Alanna and I attended True Sport Officials Workshop. It was sponsored by True Sport Lives Here in Manitoba, this is a Manitoba based group dedicated to the promotion of The True Sport values and principles throughout Manitoba. Website:

I did attend the Introductory Officials Clinics on Thursday, December 5, 2019. The two sessions were well attended and attendees appeared enthusiastic.
